▣ FRISIDEA

Frisidea is a software house and idea lab company that creates software technology, and software product development. Our company consists of highly skilled developers specializing in agile development methodology, focusing on ecommerce, Fintech and business enterprise, utilizing modern programming languages as our platform. We are now working on exciting projects and would like to offer opportunities to a few new graduates to participate in creating incredible products or services for Indonesia.

Title	IT Consultant
Number of candidate required	1-2
Location	Pluit – Jakarta Utara
Hours of work	9 (including 1 hour of lunch)

Job Description:

- You will act as IT Consultant which required to analyze business and operations then create business requirements and other necessary documents.
- You will also require to create preliminary system analysis for software development process to help providing the best solution to user.
- Do testing for project assigned.

Job Requirement:

- Must be a strong team player
- Must be able to work under pressure
- Professional, able to communicate well & have a high working responsibility
- High analytical, problem solving skill, and solution driven
- High attention to detail and high responsibility towards the success of the project
- Good experience on analyzing business process
- Skills in documenting user needs, UML, imagination of interface design, and user experience awareness

Note:

If you are interested, please email us your CV in English along with a recent photo of yourself to hr@frisidea.com.