AHA!!!

We've found you!

We need someone who has capabilities in system analyst. Someone who can solve any problem. If you can translate user requirements into mock-up tools like Balsamiq, Mockingbird, and then translate it into UML 2.0, we believe that you are the right person. If you think the same, please send your CV to www.bigio.id/pages_karir.

Let's grow together!
